

SET Consulting takes pride in our reputation for excellence and the relationships we create with our clients and candidates. We use our significant market knowledge, experience and judgement to help our clients employ the best qualified individuals for each position.

Our understanding of our clients' needs is reflected in the quality and relevance of the candidates we put forward. Our customer-focused approach ensures a large portion of our business comes from referrals.

As part of our on-going initiative to attract and source high-caliber individuals, we offer a referral fee for each candidate you send our way, who we successfully place and who fulfils his/ her standard probation period:

- R1000 on an annual salary below R350,000
- R3000 on an annual salary between R350,001 – R500,000
- R4000 on an annual salary between R500,001 – R750,000
- R5000 on an annual salary between R750,001 – R1,000,000
- R6000 on an annual salary between R1,000,001 – R1,500,000
- R10,000 on an annual salary above R1,500,001

This fee is payable once the candidate has been placed in a fulltime, permanent position and the probation period has been served successfully.

All referrals are confidential. You provide us with the names, positions and/ or contact numbers of potential referral candidates and we do not disclose the source of our information.
